THE ANNUAL STAFF OF
OKAY HIGH SCHOOL
OKAY, OKLAHOMA

PRESENTS THE 1972

MUSTANG

Dedication

MRS. LUCY RAUPE

Twenty Five Years of Service

It is with great pleasure that the annual staff dedicates the 1972 Mustang to Mrs. Lucy Raupe in commemoration of her twenty-fifth year of teaching at Okay High School.

When Mrs. Raupe began teaching at Okay in 1942, there were 49 students enrolled in high school. During the years she has remained at Okay, that number has grown to 120.

Mrs. Raupe assumed her duties as senior sponsor in 1947-48; and since that time, she has proudly watched 387 seniors walk down the aisle at commencement exercises to receive their diplomas. It is both interesting and awe-inspiring to imagine the influence she has had on the lives of so many young people.

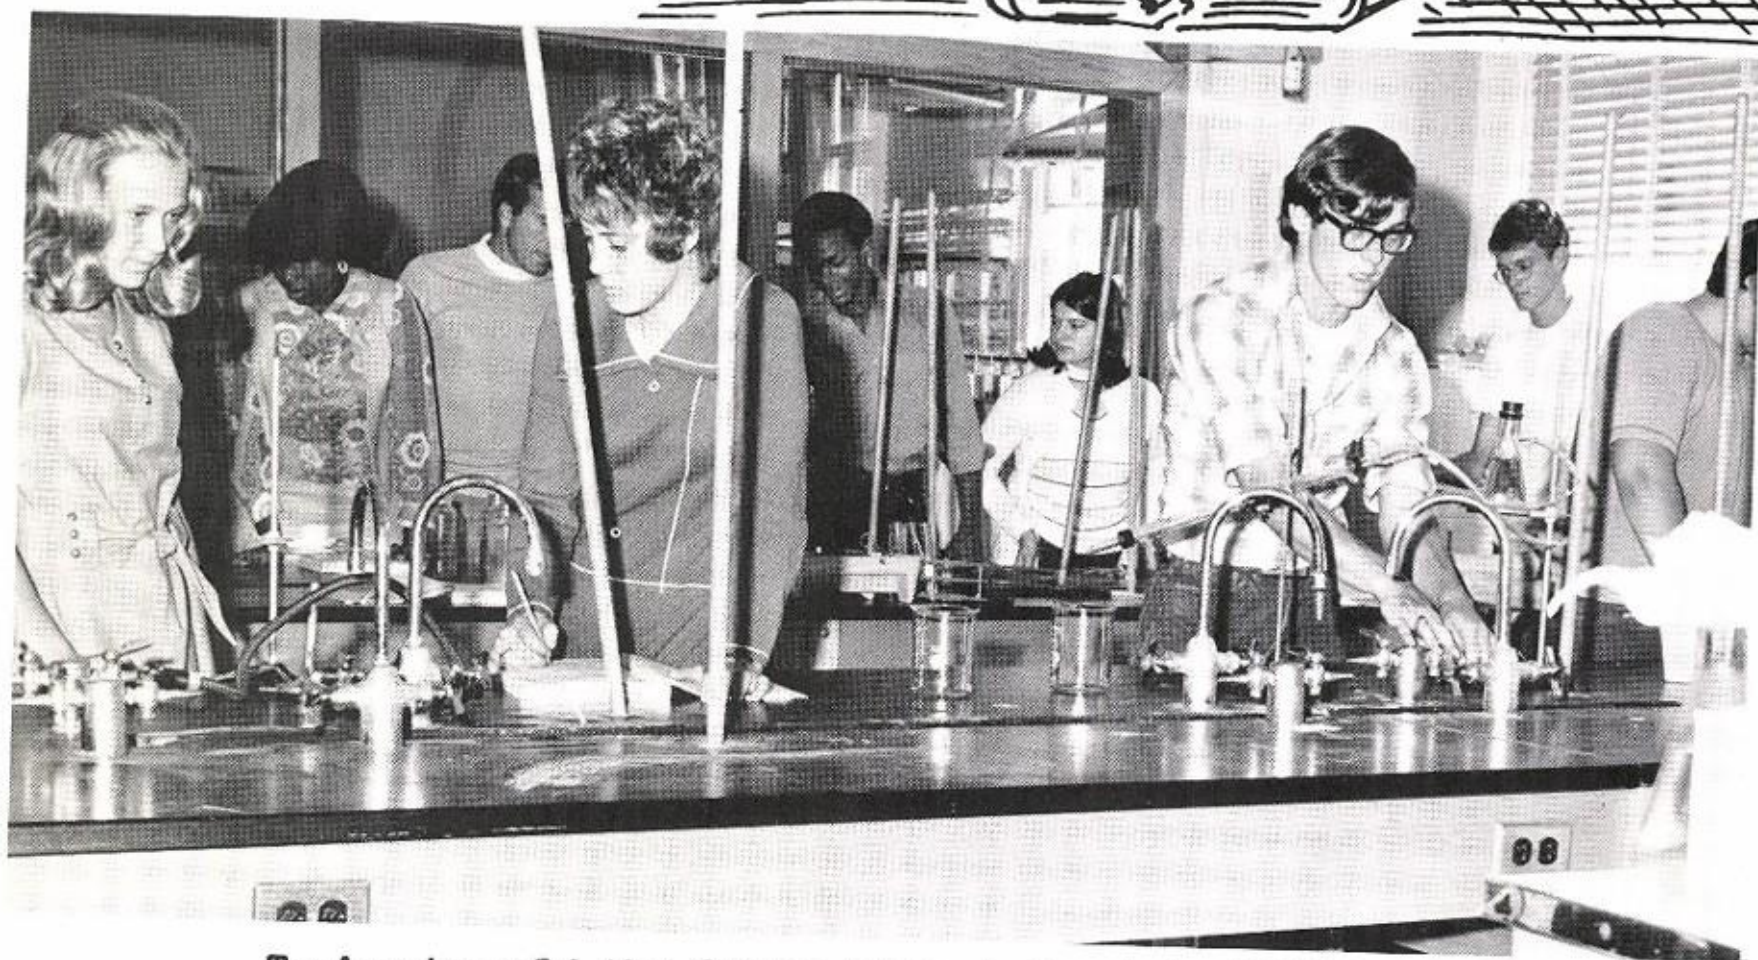

Besides teaching and advising seniors, Mrs. Raupe has been school counselor, librarian, and coordinator of the school lunch program. She has directed school plays, supervised ad sales for the annual, sponsored the Mustang, and taught night school for adults. In short, there is little that she has not done when the need presented itself. It is this dedication for which she will be remembered.

Thomas Gilcrease once said when asked why he created the Gilcrease Institute, "A man must leave his tracks." Through her unselfish devotion to the art of teaching, Mrs. Raupe has also left her tracks in perhaps the most lasting manner of all --in the hearts and minds of today's and tomorrow's men and women.

Blessed is he who has found his work; let him ask no other blessedness. He has a work, a life purpose.

--Carlyle

CLASSROOM SCENES

Trying to mold the future through Chemistry???????

What's the big secret, Lucretia? Are you really studying Biology??

Sampling some of the goodies in Library Science.

Everyone tries to get in the act in Mr. Smith's Economics Class.

WE WORK, EXPERIMENT, AND LEARN

Juniors enjoy a break during their English class.

Clerical Practice splits in half to learn filing and office machines.

Typing II class examines the results while learning to operate the mimeograph machine.

Come on boys, let's go.

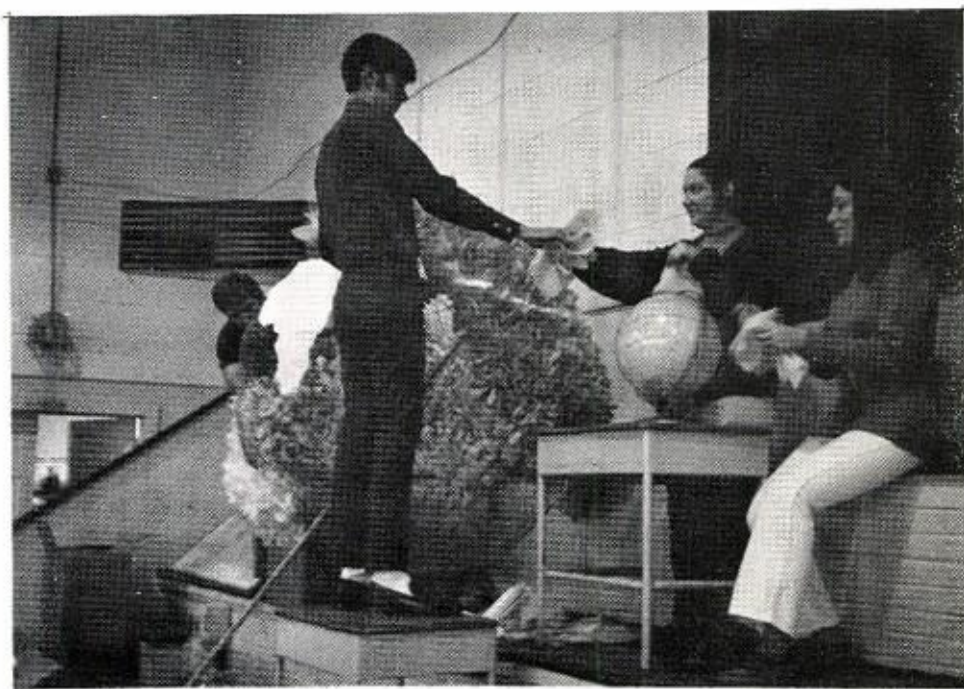

HOMECOMING ACTIVITIES

CHRISTMAS

This was the second year that Okay entered a float in the Wagoner Christmas Parade. It is a lot of work as can be seen from the pictures, but coming in 2nd place helps to make it worth all the effort. Ricky Merrill is Santa on the Rocket, Robin Hopkins is the driver, and the whole project was carried out under the direction of Mr. Smith. He had a lot of help though.

4-H'ers playing Santa with lots of toys for girls and boys and a little something for moms and dads too.

Rehearsal on the day; complete with snowdrops.

Show time--A real Christmas treat!

SNAPSHOTS

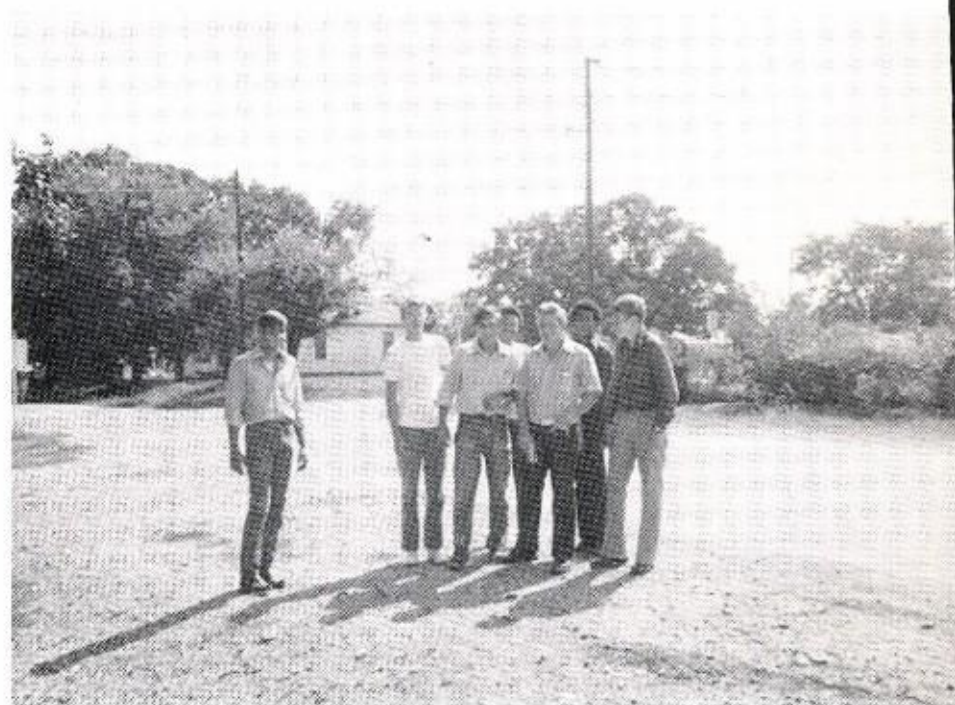

Neither rain, nor snow, nor dark of night. . .
You should'a seen the one that got away!

Mr. Shirley, Custodian

Drivers' Education: "We really appreciate our new ford. Mr. Smalley."

Hangin' around. . . .

We'll never do it again, Mr. Smith!

Bottom: Mrs. Perry's third graders look v-e-r-y busy, but not so busy as Mrs. Perry.

Phil Langston and Mr. Hopkins seem confused about what to do next. They can always eat cake.

This year's carnival was the most successful in Okay history. It was also the culmination of the greatest "fund raising October" ever! The addition of booths built by Mr. Justice's shop class greatly improved the carnival atmosphere of the evening.

THE RICHES OF LIFE

If my riches are but small
and you have a whole lot more,
You may think that you are wealthy
and that I am very poor
In thinking so, you're wrong my friend,
I can certainly tell you why,
Since I possess the things in life
that wealth can never buy.

I watch the splendor of the sunset
and the beauty of the sunrise
I behold the twinkling stars on high that beautify the heavenly skies.
In peace I wander through the forests,
over lofty mountains or rolling hills,
I seek the seclusion of hidden bowers,
or linger by the flowing rills.

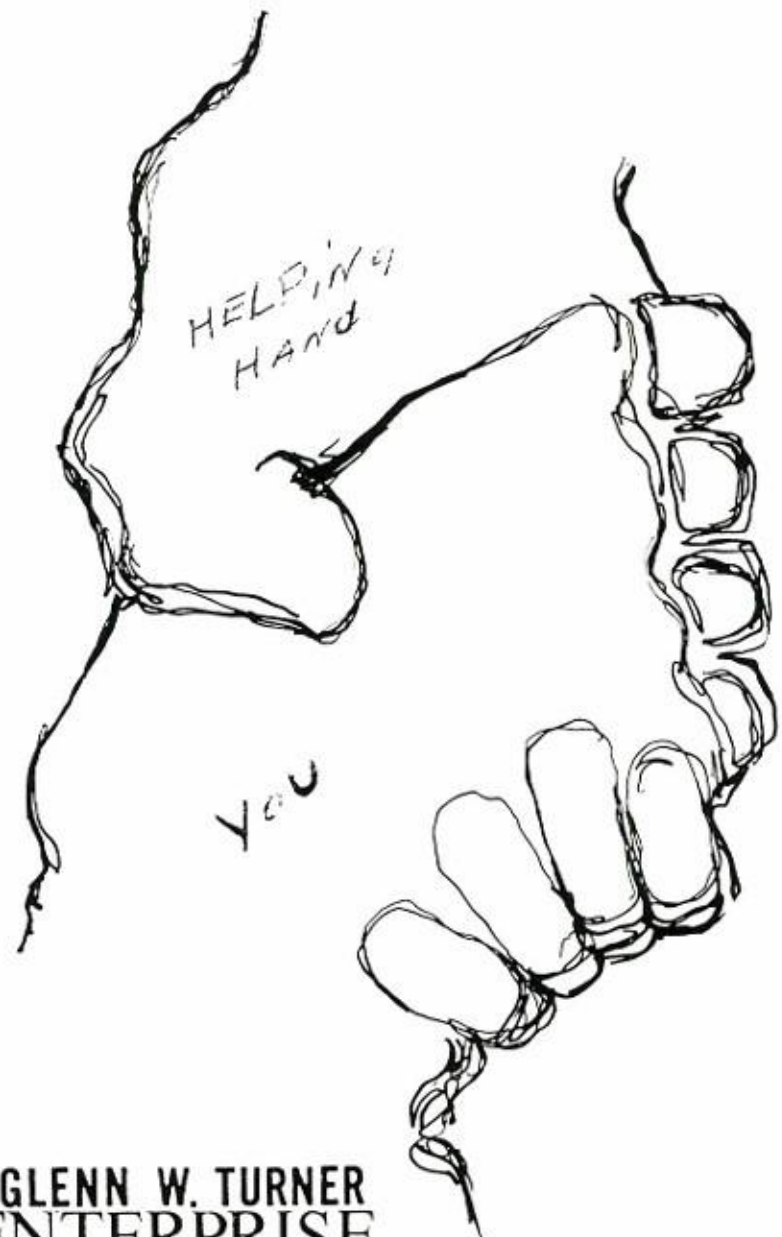

I admire the fragrance of the flowers,
and the freshness of the morning dew;
The ferns that in the meadows grow,
and sheltered lilies of delicate hue.
I see the beauty in the raindrops
that from heaven are earthward bound,
Or glistening colors in the snowflakes
as they tumble to the ground

I have stood upon a sandy shore
to gaze far out to sea,
Ever thankful for the worldly things
that I have lived to see.
I'm grateful for the air I breathe,
and the water that I drink,
So now my friend, you see why
I am richer than you think.
